

CASE HISTORY: THE NEW AMERICAN HOME®

THE NEW AMERICAN HOME® is a ‘real-world’ laboratory demonstrating “Builder’s Best Practices”, concepts, materials, designs and construction techniques that can be replicated -- in whole or in part -- in housing built any place and in any price range. Incorporating such elements as energy efficiency, indoor-air quality, safety, market value and other components of the building block is a principal goal of THE NEW AMERICAN HOME program. The TNAH mission is to show that “housing performance” can be incorporated into the most simple or most complex homes, and that it’s equally as important as aesthetics.

One of NAHB’s most successful and visible programs is produced and presented by the National Council of the Housing Industry – THE SUPPLIER 100 (NCHI). The New American Home® is built to showcase the NCHI members products and serves as the official showcase house of the annual International Builders' Show®, which attracts over 100,000 attendees. The Show is produced and sponsored by NAHB.

The design, construction and amenities are market-driven, and showcase the latest in innovative products for the future of homebuilding. The New American Home showcases NCHI members who donate the product that goes into the home, making it a highly visible in-kind sponsorship program.

NCHI cosponsors the construction of this house featuring products, technologies, and design ideas, with BUILDER Magazine. In addition, the house is featured exclusively in BUILDER Magazine, Homes and Gardens Television, and other selected consumer publications. The New American Home (TNAH) is also promoted to other national and local media (most major US newspapers) during the show, focusing on NCHI member products and generating much excitement in the industry.

Since its inception in 1984, The New American Home has the distinction of being both a show house and a for-sale product, balancing architectural design creativity and the bottom line. It is a collection of ideas for the industry to take away -- in large pieces, or bit-by bit -- and put into millions of homes across the country each year. During the International Builders' Show, The New American Home is open for scheduled tours to show attendees.

NCHI: The Supplier-Builder Connection

The National Council of the Housing Industry – THE SUPPLIER 100 (NCHI), a committee of NAHB, is dedicated to supporting the activities of NAHB and to keeping the housing industry healthy and flourishing.

Chartered in 1964, NCHI is comprised of nationally known product and service suppliers to the housing industry who are committed partners. Members support many of the functions and activities of NAHB’s committees and councils.

Through its efforts, NCHI serves all NAHB members and associations throughout the federation by advancing industry positions and showcasing the best the industry has to offer.

Member companies are trusted and recognized leaders in the construction field who have earned reputations for reliable service and innovative products. Approximately 43% of the exhibition space at the annual INTERNATIONAL BUILDERS’ SHOW® is occupied by NCHI members.
