JobTread Unveils a Game-Changing Free On-Screen Takeoff Feature

Dallas, TX – January 20, 2025 – JobTread Software, a leading provider of construction management solutions, is proud to announce the launch of its innovative on-screen Takeoff tool. This new feature enables users to perform digital measurements directly from project plans, streamlining the estimation process and enhancing accuracy. In a move set to disrupt the industry, JobTread is offering this powerful tool at no additional cost to its customers.

The on-screen Takeoff tool allows construction professionals to upload project plans, set scales, and perform precise measurements within the JobTread platform. This seamless integration eliminates the need for third-party software, reducing errors and saving valuable time. Users can effortlessly generate and sync measurement data from plans into their budgets without ever leaving JobTread.

Traditionally, on-screen takeoff software has been a significant investment for construction companies, by incorporating this feature into its platform at no extra charge, JobTread is removing financial barriers and empowering businesses of all sizes to access cutting-edge technology.

"Our mission at JobTread has always been to provide comprehensive, user-friendly solutions that drive efficiency and profitability for our customers," said Eric Fortenberry, Founder & CEO of JobTread. "By offering on-screen takeoff at no additional cost, we're leveling the playing field and ensuring that all construction professionals have access to the tools they need to succeed."

In addition to on-screen takeoff, JobTread offers a suite of features designed to streamline construction management, including estimating, project management, financial tracking, and customer communications. The platform's all-in-one approach simplifies workflows and enhances collaboration, making it a valuable asset for builders, remodelers, and contractors.
