“It was time for an exterior remodel of our home, so I did some searching on the internet for an exterior rock that we could put on the front of our house. I didn’t want the cost or weight of traditional rock, but I did want something that could stand up to inclement weather and the look and feel of real stone. That is when I discovered GenStone!”

—Bryant, Southern Indiana

“

“We just finished our front entry deck incorporating GenStone Desert Sunrise and the trim. We are very pleased with the outcome and are getting many compliments. The panels and trim are so easy to use and we may expand to more areas of the house.”

—Dandy, Eugene, OR

“

“I wanted to build an above ground pond for my yard and I heard about genstone from a friend. It was easy to install and it looks professionally done. What I liked best about this product was the help I received from their customer service rep Rob. He went above and beyond to make sure I was comfortable completing my project.”

—Kevin, San Diego, CA

“

“We bought our home with a bar area in the basement family room but were never satisfied with its very dated appearance. Our vision of a stone wall on the bar front and sides of the back bar was firmly envisioned in our minds and we knew we would need to do the work ourselves with no experience.”

—Bob, Reading, PA

Desert Sunrise Color Profile Inspiration

Imagine watching the desert horizon at dawn, as the rising sun illuminates the earth, adding dimension and warmth to the faded terrain below. Bathed in a dreamy red glow, this pale, rugged landscape is transformed before your eyes. The GenStone design team used this breathtaking experience as an inspiration for our Desert Sunrise faux stone panels.

Desert Sunrise features a warm, beige base washed with red and dark sandstone hues that bring each faux stone panel to life. This modern design is ideal for those seeking a distinct, bold but romantic look for their next project. Try Desert Sunrise with your next project. Order your sample today.
