

What Our Customers Are Saying:

“ LotVue and the way it displays information visually literally gave us and the builders we work with a big-picture view of our processes and operations. We could see our developments in map form in a way that we just couldn't do with Access, which has made a huge difference.”

Denise Wallace
Office Manager, La Plata Communities

“ For builders like us, it's pretty simple. If you want access to real-time, accurate information and to be able to make better, more informed business decisions, then you must have LotVue. It's that good!”

Scott McDonald
Purchasing Manager, Rockhaven Homes

“ LotVue has made it so much easier to access the information we need to create marketing decisions. Real-time information is accessible with just a few clicks.”

Mike Hess
VP of Sales & Marketing, Vantage Homes

“ LotVue gives us reporting for our operations, accounting, marketing, and sales departments that we didn't have before and delivers a wealth of back-office features and functionality that benefit our entire organization.”

Nick Rhode
CEO, L & M Electric

“ Internally, LotVue lets the whole team see where projects are in real-time. It provides a color-coded map that lets a builder see at a glance which homes are on schedule and budget. The information is all in one place, so there is no need for multiple separate reports. Plus, it's visual, so it is easy to digest.”

Aileen Carroll
Marketing & Brand Manager, French Brothers

“ LotVue gives our sales managers the ability to make informed, data-driven decisions on what spec homes to start and where.”

Nick Rhodes
General Manager, Esperanza Homes
